

Mussoorie Blooms

High Altitude Centre for Wellness
Tourism with Medicinal &
Aromatic Plants

Address

"Aroma Village", Duggal Villa, Duggal Villa Estate,
Mall Road, Library, Mussoorie Uttarakhand.

The organization is based in Mussoorie in the state of Uttarakhand with the objective to heal amidst 'THE MOUNTAIN AIR' which is loaded with aroma's of fragrant and exotic plants, there flowers and leaves. This is interspersed with the aroma of the earth and the forest around this centre at Aroma Village Duggal Villa Estate. Our products are designed by hands which have understood these plants for their healing attributes through decades of research and practice of aromatherapy.

Believing in the principle of dasha ishkriti. To explain dasha ishkriti the name of our company, we simply explain it as 'TEN WAYS TO HEAL' precisely meaning heal by touch communication, ingestion, and gastronomic delights, smell and limbic responses, mountain air, balancing in the hormones, kriyas of yoga, positive thinking and meditation, experiencing the presence of God, negating negativity and being firmly rooted.

*"Dear Dr Marwah Madam,
You have surpassed your image in my view to such a super extend. Your project that has been undertaken is no doubt going to be part of entire Mussoorians in some ways or the other. The preparation of the song has shown your versatility once again. The love for motherland and dreams of your father is so well given shape. Adding fragrance and essence is not only done here in your work but as your research student to I have experienced it. The time, energy, efforts supplemented with your talent is showing the desired results. You have added value and weightage to the map of Mussoorie. The tourists will look forward to this. There may not be sufficient words to describe. Only want to tell you that the new generation will definitely take great inspiration from YOU. All the very best mam."*
